CELEBRATING THE CHAPEL CAMPAIGN

This summer, Cedarville expanded and renovated the Jeremiah Chapel. After 20 years of faithful use, the chapel showed signs of wear and could no longer accommodate the growing student body.

With gifts from many generous donors already in place, the men from Brock Hall quickly removed chapel pews during finals week of spring semester, and the renovation began. With Getting Started Weekend as the pressing deadline, construction crews worked hard all summer to complete the renovation and expansion. The chapel was completed just in time for students to return in August, and the first chapel was held August 22 as part of Fall Bible Conference.

The renovation and expansion included:

- New carpet and paint
- New and additional seating
- Updated sound system
- New lighting

Thank you to the entire Cedarville family for your generosity toward the chapel renovation. Because of your faithfulness, students will be impacted through daily chapel for many years to come.

PLAN FOR THE FUTURE

To help prepare for Cedarville's next century of impact, we are offering a complimentary service we believe will bless you and your family. Cedarville has partnered with PhilanthroCorp, a Christ-centered organization that can help you think through your wills and estate documents from a biblical worldview. They do not sell products or manage your money, so nothing they do is intended to replace your current advisers. Your personal information will be held in confidence and will not be shared with the University.

The process begins with a phone interview by PhilanthroCorp where they learn your story, including your wishes and hopes for future generations. PhilanthroCorp then provides tools that can guide you to legacy decisions within the privacy of your home. Based on those decisions, PhilanthroCorp will design a plan that can be easily implemented by your advisers, or by an attorney in their network at reduced rates. Cedarville Advancement will provide the services of PhilanthroCorp to you free of charge. Simply call 1-800-876-7958, and an estate specialist from PhilanthroCorp will help you determine a plan that fits you best.

MICHAEL P. DICUIRCI ENDOWED SCHOLARSHIP

As a way to honor longtime faculty member Michael DiCuirci for nearly 40 years of service to Cedarville, a group of donors created a scholarship in his name. The scholarship was formally announced during DiCuirci's farewell concert on April 17, 2016. Allister Baldwin '99, significantly influenced by DiCuirci during his time as a student, made the official announcement and, along with Beth Porter, Chair of the Department of Music and Worship, presented the scholarship to its first recipient, Julia Brummel '16.

God knew how He would provide for me, though I didn't, which just goes to prove how awesome and great our God really is! Thank you for investing in my life with your financial support and for touching future recipients of this scholarship in an eternal way! May God bless you! Thank you for remembering Mr. D by exemplifying His same generous heart!"
